

ClearSign Named a Finalist for Platts Global Energy "Commercial Application of the Year" Award

SEATTLE, Oct. 8 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- ClearSign Combustion Corporation (NASDAQ: CLIR), an emerging leader in combustion and emissions control technology for industrial, commercial and utility markets, has been named as a finalist in the 2015 Platts Global Energy Awards, an annual program recognizing exemplary leadership in the energy industry.

Now in its 17th year, the Global Energy Awards are commonly referred to as the "Oscars of the Energy Industry" and boast some of the most prominent energy-related companies in the world.

The 2015 finalists, selected from over 200 nominations, were announced by program host Platts, a leading global provider of energy, petrochemicals, metals and agriculture information. ClearSign's Duplex™ technology was shortlisted in the "Commercial Application of the Year" category for its advanced capabilities in process optimization and emissions reduction for the oil & gas sector.

Winners of the 2015 Platts Global Energy Awards will be announced at a black-tie celebration in New York City on December 9. Preceding the Awards program, finalists and nearly 200 senior executives will take part in the Platts Global Energy Outlook Forum, which features keynote speakers, round-table discussions and debate of critical issues facing the world's energy businesses and policy-makers.
